/ABOVE KEYBOARD DRESSING

Main Autumn 2021 is a mixture of feminine and raw, and with high
focus on comfort.

The new term 'Above keyboard dressing' is here to stay.
Focus is on details seen above the keyboard as we continue to work from home and meet online in virtual meetings.

Big collars, dressy buttons, puff sleeves and comfy structure knits. Loungewear pants combined with a cool leather for a relaxed yet cool and stylish look.

Shades of natural colors continue to stay on trend as well as comfort and sustainability remain inevitable
fashion drivers for the long term.

Colors like sand, dark grey and black is combined
with sunkissed pink shades and green olive tones.

We all seek comfort, softness and reliability
in subtle colors and soft qualities.
