FOOTWEAR TENNIS

Q1 JANUARY - MARCH 2022

Our tennis shoes are inspired by what Fred wore on the court. Our Classic B721 is elevated through brush-off leather side panel and heel tab in rich ox blood which is a nod to our George Cox bridal leather finish. Further elevation is found through the debossed dual colour 30 Leaf Laurel sign off which is framed with 'FredPerry Since 1952' and applied to the brush-off side panel. It's a Tennis shoe that transcends across both sport and sharp 'looks'.

The Spencer is one of our heritage styles was reworked and relaunched in Q3 to great acclaim. The upper has been refined with a rounder toe shape whilst maintaining the classic Spencer low profile aesthetic. The Spencer is a versatile shoe which adapt to fabrication variation.

FOOTWEAR SHARP

Q1 JANUARY - MARCH 2022

Tough, heavy-duty styling inspired by the British subcultural uniform. We partner with respected footwear brands enriching our subcultural offering.

The Linden is a hybrid style, influenced by both our sporting and subcultural heritage. With its plimsol inspired silhouette, further inspiration is taken from the suede creeper and this Quarter, we've combined rich suede fabrication to the vamp with tonal embossed cord suede to quarter and heel counter. The Bark colour tone is offset with contrast gum crepe effect outsole. Finishing details include black cotton laces and a woven 16 leaf Laurel Wreath heel tab puller, plus the distinctive Red Stewart Tartan inside. Another example of great brand storytelling through design.

A staple of our footwear collection, the George Cox Tassel loafer comes in full white leather upper with the traditional tasselled fringe detail.

The contrast black crepe effect outsole, gold foil dual-branded leather in-sock and woven 16 leaf Laurel Wreath heel tab puller finish the style.
