263 COLLECTION

Power in her presence. Precision in her style. She moves through her day with effortless elegance, her wardrobe a curated dialogue of intention and ease. This Fall 2026 collection becomes her compass—guiding the interplay of everyday luxury and leisure with silhouettes that speak in refined layers and modern textures, designed for comfort without compromise.

Colors transition from enduring neutrals to rich tones of berry and indigo, punctuated by abstract prints, geometric motifs, and checks that sharpen contrast and add graphic clarity. Every element feels deliberate, bridging understated refinement with bold clarity—a harmony that reads as both instinctive and editorial.

Knits and outerwear anchor her narrative: soft sweaters, tailored coats, and fur-trimmed accents that exude quiet opulence. Paired with denim and versatile separates, they transform layering into a statement of style. The protagonist of her story, this season, dressing is not routine—it's an art form, a visual language of confidence and sophistication, designed for the woman living vibrantly.

Modern Geometry celebrates the harmony of past and present through a refined palette of chambray, indigo, and warm neutrals. Bold geometric motifs bring striking character to fluid fabrications and softly structured knits and separates, effortlessly complementing her go-to denim. Designed for moments that balance ease with sophistication, every line, hue, and curve feels artfully aligned with her modern rhythm.

Neutral Ground speaks in a refined palette of Camel, Winter White, Grey Melange, and Black. Enveloping knitwear and faux fur-trimmed coats redefine her silhouette with sculptural elegance, while dimensional jacquards and graphic geometrics introduce sharp contrast and precision. A study in modern minimalism, neutrality emerges with bold clarity and uncompromising sophistication.
