SWEDISH DESIGN OVER THE YEARS

Joel Åkerlund started AB Corsettindustri in 1932. The company manufactured, among other things, stockings, suspenders, corsets and bras. The Cid brand was used and developed for the Abc Corset and later became Abecita in 1954.

The Little Wonder bra became a great success for the company. Lilla Undret was first sewn in 1972 from two sock heels made of crepenylon. Nina Wahlgren was responsible for the design of Lilla Undret. Abecita was acquired in 1981.

For Abecita, it is a matter of course to let women's different needs control the assortment.

HOW WE WORK

Underwear is a solid craft, so we do not compromise when it comes to function and quality. The long tradition and experience have given Abecita its specialist knowledge, which we then combine with innovative Scandinavian design.

PROSTHETIC & NURSING BRAS

Functional bras like prosthetic- and nursing bras.

A prosthetic bra is a bra with pockets with space for a breast prosthesis or other inserts. The models are soft bras and are made of a durable material with extra reinforcement that provides good support.

We also have functional bras that are opaque with a high cut both front and back, as well as with wider shoulder straps for better support and comfort.

Our prosthetic bras, for example, are suitable for you who have undergone breast surgery and need a bra that is suitable for a breast prosthesis.

For you who are a new mother, we at Abecita offer comfortable and easy-to-use breastfeeding bras. Choose if you want a nursing bra with or without a strap, we have both parts. All have easy-to-handle tension that makes it easy to unbutton when it's time to breastfeed.

For those of you with a larger bust, there are nursing bras in large sizes with good support in the form of wide and adjustable shoulder straps.

We also have completely seamless nursing bras for the first time when the breasts can vary in size and be sore, as well as nursing bras with extra many hooks in the back to adapt it to the body's different size range during this period.

SWIMWEAR

Common to all of our swimwear is that they are Swedish designed and maintain the same high quality.

OUR FOCUS FOR OUR SWIM-COLLECTION SUSTAINABILITY!

Recycled polyamide is made from waste from the production of other polyamide.

Our Capri Collection is made in recycled nylon, ECONYL®. Thank to it's innovative construction is the material extra resistant to chlorine, suntan cream and oils.

Polyamide - artificial fibre that come from fossil oil and have qualities such as long durability. Together with cotton, polyamide and polyester are the most common materials in our assortment.

Since polyester and polyamide are oil-based and manufactured from non-renewable sources, we are working to expand the use of recycled polyester and polyamide. This allows us to reduce the pressure on natural resources and climate impact. Since polyester and polyamide are oil-based and manufactured from non-renewable sources, we are working to expand the use of recycled polyester and polyamide. This to reduce the pressure on natural resources and climate impact.

Did you know...

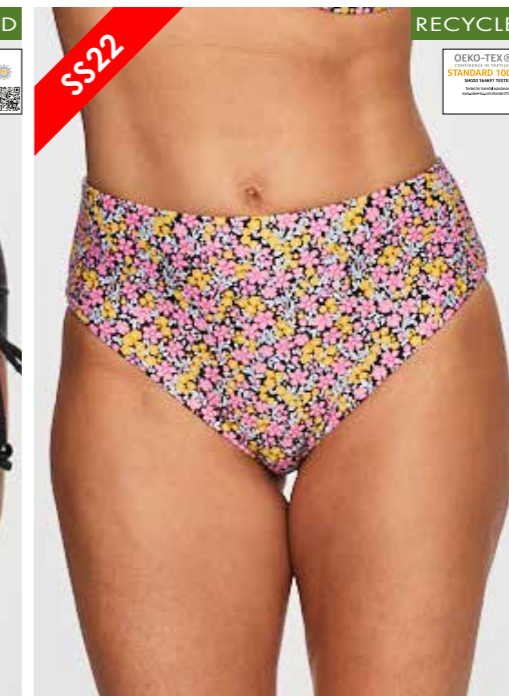

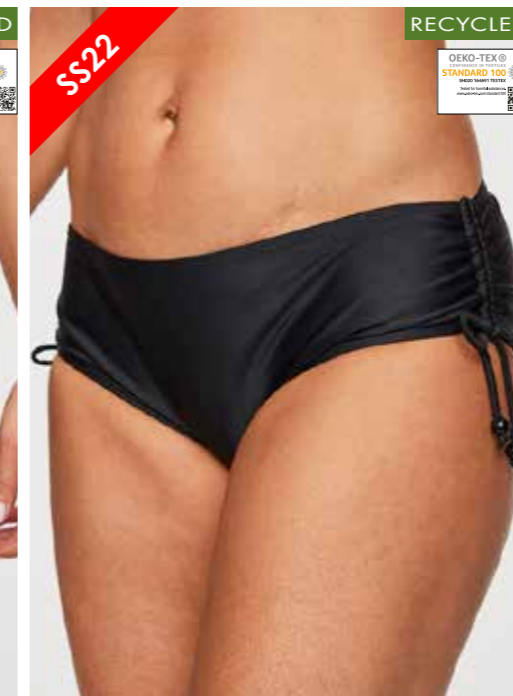

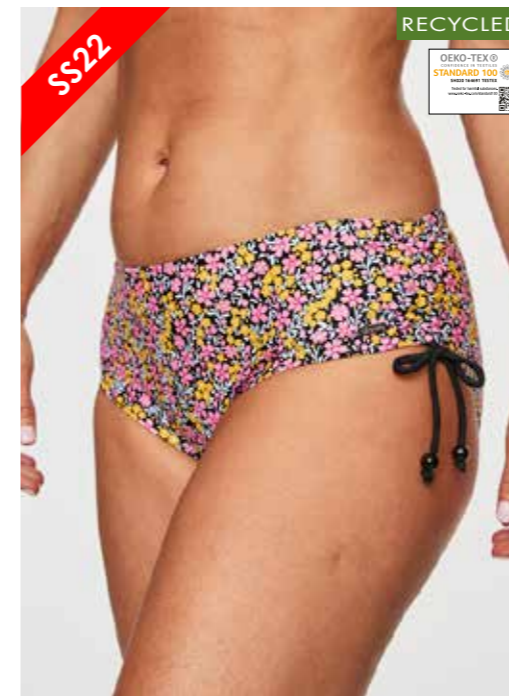

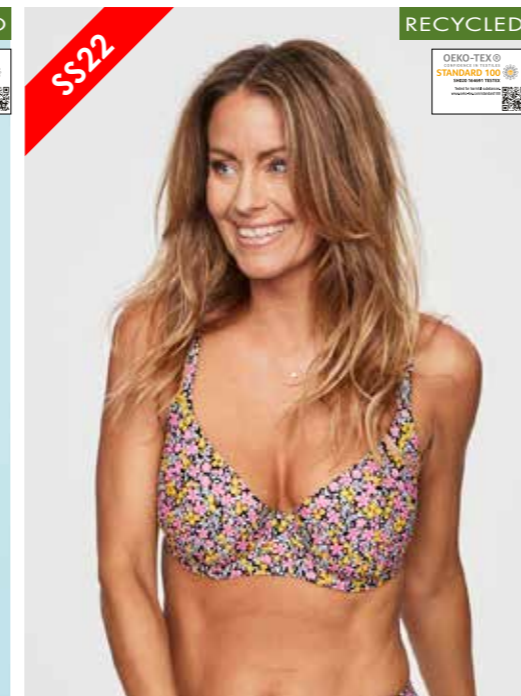

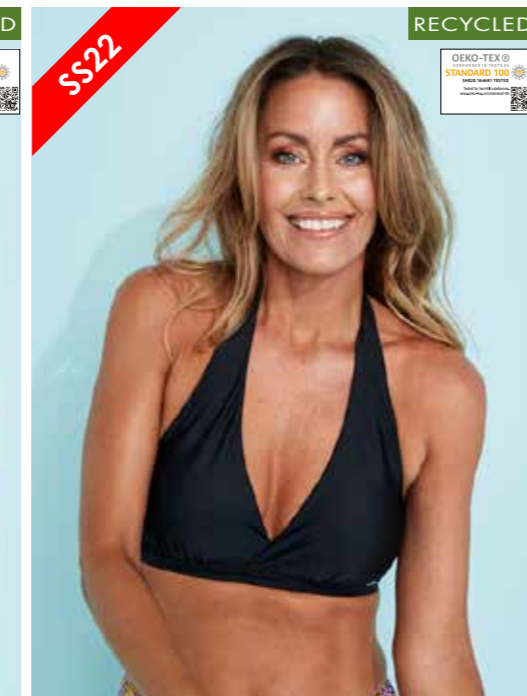

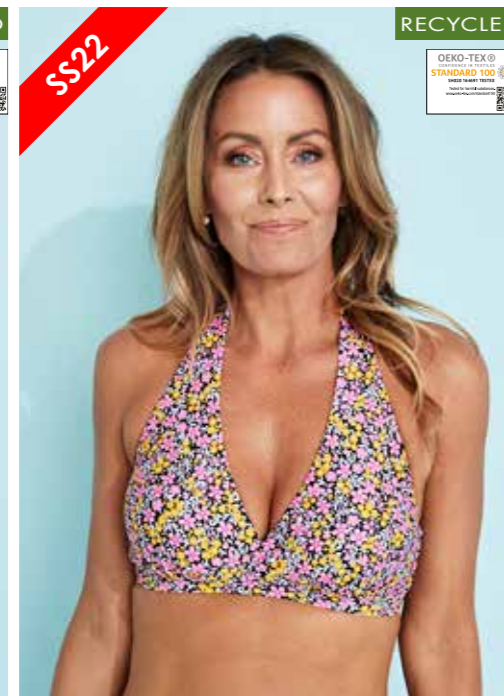

..that our new collection Maui is all recycled polyamid and oeko tex certified?

This means that most of our range is free of chemicals. Abecita places great emphasis on sustainability throughout the process, it starts with our design. By making conscious choices already in the design process, we can ensure sustainability.
