Slush All weather neoprene boot with great grip	5-11000 Price:	Size 23-38	Delivery June

Rain, snow, mud or ice? Conquer them all with this versatile, all-weather rubber boot that was built for the shoulder season's unpredictable weather. Viking rubber boots are known for their quality, and the lower portion of the boot is made of durable, reinforced rubber to take on the toughest ground conditions. But a few innovations were needed to deal with the tougher temperature extremes. To do so, Slush features an insulating neoprene liner and lightweight TPR neoprene shaft, which is also able to remain flexible even in the coldest winter weather. And to meet all sorts of slippery surfaces, a grippy rubber outsole features a unique tread pattern that continues up the sides, providing extra lateral traction when side-stepping up snowy or muddy slopes.

The Comfort light GTX is a lightweight, all-round hiking shoe that delivers good grip, high comfort and wet weather protection with every step. A durable construction stands up to rough wear and the GORE-TEX membrane provides total waterproof protection and high breathability. The Gore-tex membrane is OEKO-TEX 100 standard and Bluesign® certified. The mid high design gives ankle support and protection, while an EVA midsole cushions every step. For great trail grip, the UGC® outsole is made of soft rubber with a distinct lug pattern.
