

JOF

LEATHER LABELS & JACRON

ABOUT US

JOF is a company specialized in the production of leather labels for jeans and garments, all production is made in Portugal where we ship worldwide mainly to Asia, Europe, Northern Africa where the garments manufacturers are located. With a short production lead time and very competitive prices we can supply any market worldwide from Italy to Bangladesh. All our products are regularly tested under SGS parameters, and we have Oeko-Tex and FSC certification.

OUR SERVICE

JOF provides a wide range of materials starting with regular true leather but also disposing of a huge range of fake-leather options. At JOF we obviously follow the trend of pursuing a more sustainable future, that's why we provide a strong variety of vegetal origin "leathers" such as jacron paper that we can transform into hundreds of different qualities, colors and finishings. Besides we also produce labels with sustainable and recycled materials such as ecovero viscose, recycled poliester, Apple leather, Corn leather, Cork leather, Bambu leather, organic cotton canvas patches and other bio-based carbon materials, etc.
