Soul Image – photography art with a soulful message

Soul Image creates photo art - art posters.
Every photo collection from Soul Image comes with a story and each image comes with its own soulful message.

There is a story behind every collection and each print comes with a beautiful written soulmessage.

A stylist and a photographer is the duo behind Soul Image. Which turns out to be a great and powerful combination when these two creative professions meet. Their desire is to make the walls around us more peaceful, thoughtful and soulful!

The company is based in Stockholm, Sweden and all Soul Images photo art are created and printed in Sweden on a climate friendly Swedish premium design paper.

The paper comes from a prestigious Swedish paper mill with a great history of making paper dating back nearly 300 years.

Soul Image is offering seven collections at the moment; Reflections, Soul Board, Magic Crystals, Soul of a Nomad, The Soul of Sustainable Fashion, The Power of a Flower and A Soul of a Ballerina. New photo collections with thoughtful and soulful messages will continuously be released.

All the prints are signed by hand with the hand embossed Soul Image seal, to guarantee authenticity and making each print unique.

Grace Your Walls with Soul

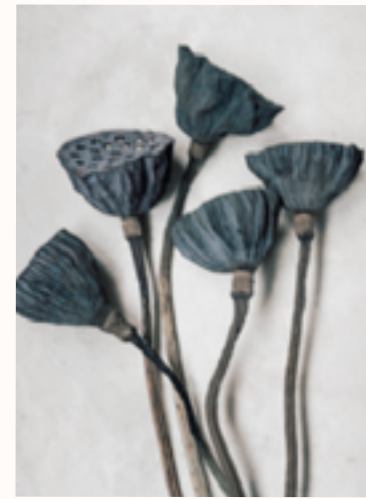

Reflections

To give yourself some sweet time for reflections and contemplation can make wonders for your inner being. It is like a meditation in the midst of your day. Being thankful for everything you have around you. People, objects and events.

Is it possible that even things and objects have feelings and a soul? Do they carry memories as well?

Are you willing to give it a try - For a couple of times during the day, just stop whatever you are doing at the moment and send some loving and grateful thoughts to the people and things you have around you. And to yourself always.....

The Power of a Flower

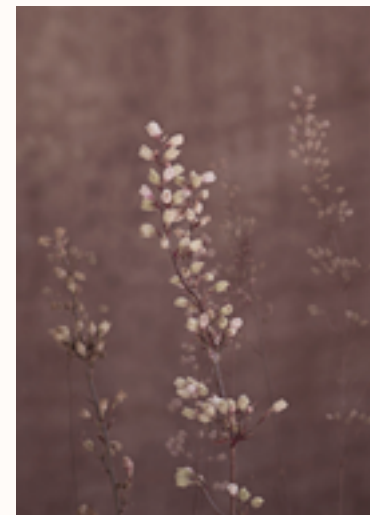

Every little thing in nature is there for a divine reason.

Every plant has a specific mission and its own unique personality, Every element on the plant has a unique purpose and a divine plan.

A flower does not either compete nor compare itself to any other flower.

It just blooms with dignity.

Soul of a Nomad

A new era is dawning. An era when Mother Earth matters deeply. Deep down from her powerful roots to all her magical greens, the plants, the flowers, the oceans and all the incredible wildlife she so gracefully provides for us, for her, for all.

We are all connected in a beautiful weave.

A new beginning of seeing life as our ancestors, the indigenous and native peoples view of life. The awe and respect for the magnificent pureness and power of planet earth - and the whole magical universe.

If we listen we can hear her whisper to us.

We can hear them who have been here before us, the ones who are coming and the ones who are guiding us.

If we listen we can feel who we are deep down in our divine souls.
